

Introduction to Management Accounting

CMA Foundation: Cost & Management Accounting · Subject: Management Accounting

Overview

The role and scope of management accounting in business decision-making.

Study Notes

This chapter forms part of the 'Management Accounting' subject within the 'CMA Foundation: Cost & Management Accounting' course on LawStudents. It is intended to give students a structured, exam-oriented understanding of the topic before moving to the next chapter.

- Read the overview and identify the core concept being tested.
- Cross-refer the relevant Bare Act or standard textbook chapter alongside these notes.
- Attempt previous-year or practice questions related to this chapter before moving on.